

Photo: Jenna Falk

Music in the forest—children listen to one of the nine musical groups performing along the Walkalong For Learning route on August 30. Galiano Conservancy Association had great support for its second annual Walkalong. The event raised almost $17,000 towards nature education programs and the Restorative Learning Centre's development. Donations can still be made throughout September.