

Funders and Professional Advisors

TIP SHEET

A Leader in Ecological Restoration and Protection

- innovative forest restoration and species at risk projects.
- supported protection of over 2,000 acres on Galiano island.
- owns 475 acres and hold conservation covenants on an additional 537 acres.

Committed to Environmental Learning

- Provides hands-on programs in ecological restoration, habitat exploration, sustainable food production, alternative energy generation for groups such as inner city students, First Nations, new immigrants, Grandparents Raising Grandchildren, and participants of all ages.
- Engaged more than 30,000 participants since 2000.
- Serves as a research and teaching base for students in UVic's School of Environmental Studies.
- Hosts university interns from Europe and across Canada.

Upcoming and In Process Campaigns

- Securing the Future Campaign for Galiano's Millard Learning Centre.
- Annual Walkalong for Learning Community Event (since 2013).

Our Funding Model

- combination of individual donations, foundation and corporate grants, government grants and revenue from social enterprise activities.
- non-profit charity moving towards a greater level of self sufficiency through social enterprise development.

Vancouver Foundation Endowment Fund

- Calculate Gift Impact
- Ways to Give through the Foundation
- Further information for Advisors

Charitable Registration Number

- BN886092998 RR0001

Galiano Conservancy
ASSOCIATION

Contact us

Jennifer Stackhouse, Development Coordinator

10825 Porlier Pass Rd.

Galiano Island, BC, V0N 1P0

www.galianoconservancy.ca

development@galianoconservancy.ca

Phone/Fax: (250)539-2424